

VERONA SARTI ARZUMANIAN

Master of Science

Alto Éxito Director

I have developed a special skill on managing start up and Project Controlling using PMI methodology as well. My background is full skilled on such different Bachelor degrees as Accounting, Business administration and Information Technology; and a Master in International Commerce. I also took several courses on Neuro-linguistic programming (NLP) and Oratory. This very important intellectual asset and my own creativity allow me to manage into an easier way, both most complex and unsophisticated projects. I have been working for last 14 years in such different industries as private and public enterprises, national and internationals and small and huge companies. At the last 6 years, I worked in different countries like Germany, England, Italy, Colombia, El Salvador and Uruguay, and also I achieved a contract with Fox International Channels.
